

ODMR spectrum with microwave modulated in amplitude (they point upward instead of downward)

Increasing B in a random direction

As the magnetic field increases, the classes get out of resonance from each other → They get more polarized
→ The photoluminescence increases

